Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously disclosed, on July 20, 2020, Briggs & Stratton Corporation (the “Company”) and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for Eastern District of Missouri (the “Bankruptcy Court”). On September 15, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court approved the sale of substantially all of the assets of the Debtors pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Sale”). The closing of the Sale is subject to customary closing obligations and is expected to occur shortly hereafter, or, in any case, no later than the end of September. As previously disclosed in a Form 12b-25 filed on September 14, 2020 with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company expects that no proceeds from the Sale will be distributed to the Company’s shareholders.

The Company expects that equity holders will experience a complete loss of their investment and therefore cautions against trading in the Company’s equity securities.

Cautionary Statement on Forward-Looking Statements

Various statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including those that express a belief, expectation or intention, as well as those that are not statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company’s actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain risks and other factors, which include the following: risks and uncertainties relating to the Chapter 11 Cases, including but not limited to, the timing of the closing of the Sale, the Company’s ability to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval with respect to motions in the Chapter 11 Cases, the effects of the Chapter 11 Cases on the Company and on the interests of various constituents, Bankruptcy Court rulings in the Chapter 11 Cases and the outcome of the Chapter 11 Cases in general, the duration of the Chapter 11 Cases, risks associated with third-party motions in the Chapter 11 Cases, and the Company’s ability to realize proceeds from remaining assets; risks related to the trading of the Company’s common stock on the OTC Pink Market, particularly because the proposed plan of liquidation provides that there will not be sufficient funds or other assets to allow holders of the Company’s common stock to receive any distribution of value in respect of their equity interests; risks relating to the Company’s ability to obtain Bankruptcy Court confirmation of the proposed plan of liquidation as proposed by the Company; the uncertainty as to when or whether the effective date of the proposed plan of liquidation will occur as currently expected by the Company; and the risk that the Chapter 11 Cases may be converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Company therefore cautions readers against relying on these forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on the Company’s behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements. All such statements speak only as of the date made, and, except as required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
